

WICKED CINCINNATI

The Scene of a Remarkably Successful Religious Revival.

SEVEN THOUSAND CONVERSIONS

In the Meetings Held by Evangelist Mills—A Methodical Course Pursued by the Churches—A Great Meeting at Music Hall—Three Thousand Places of Business Closed During the Meeting on Wednesday.

CINCINNATI, March 3.—A religious revival of unusual features had its culmination yesterday in services at Music Hall, morning, afternoon and night, at which that great structure was each time filled to overflowing. Business houses all over the city, to the number of 3,000, were reported by the managers of the meeting closed yesterday during the hours of service at Music Hall. The movement was arranged for early last fall, and all the churches of the city united in carrying out the plans of the evangelist, Rev. B. Fay Mills. These were very methodical, involving the districting of the city with preliminary work in each district. When Rev. Mills came, over a month ago, he found the field prepared. His plan was to first hold a union meeting in the largest church in one of the districts, excluding from it persons not living in that district; then do the same in other districts, and finally unite the whole city in closing meetings at Music Hall. The result has been a crowded house at almost all the meetings. Mr. Mills was assisted for two weeks or more by Rev. Dr. Chapman, of Philadelphia. The number of persons who have at these meetings signified a desire to become Christians is now placed at over 7,000. The meetings close on Sunday next.

A MIDWINTER SABBATH.

The closing of all the large business houses between certain hours, the Sunday quiet of the streets, the great crowds at Music Hall to listen to the words and songs of the gospel in the middle of a busy day always devoted to secular pursuits, these things figuratively speaking have directed more attention to the Nazarene in Cincinnati today than he received in Jerico.

No name is more appropriate for yesterday than "The midweek Sabbath." It was, during the closing periods, like a Sunday, and there never was such a Sunday in Cincinnati as was this Wednesday. The response to Mr. Mills' request that it be set apart as a day of special devotion was such as to make the date forever memorable in the annals of the Protestant Evangelical churches of this city. If, as in other places where Mr. Mills has been, the converts banded together and form a permanent organization, the successive anniversaries should be celebrated on the 2d of March, for that day in 1892 was the crowning day of the whole Mills movement.

Many business men in all lines of trade and manufacture, including some liquor stores, saloons and drug stores, were closed from 9:30 a. m. till 12 noon, and from 3 p. m. until 5, and were closed at 7 last evening. This action was so unanimous in certain localities that the places remaining open were conspicuous on account of their small number. Not only was the hum of trade hushed, but there was a widely felt feeling of solemnity prevalent. With thousands of people the day was begun with prayer; then there were family gatherings around the household altars, and at 8 o'clock in the morning in many sections of the city neighbors assembled at some house in their midst and united in prayers for God's blessings upon the season and its services, upon friends, relatives and strangers. At 9 o'clock in the morning in each one of the seventy churches cooperating in this movement in Cincinnati and its suburbs, on both sides of the river, the people met together to participate in prayer meetings conducted by the pastors. And from these meetings the bodies of worshippers proceeded to Music Hall to mingle as they got near to that great temporary tabernacle with the throngs and processions of business men and employees that were decorously hastening to the first mass meetings of the day.

ABOUT 3,000 SIGNED TO CLOSE.

About 3,000 men signed the pledge to close, and doubtless there were many more who closed without solicitation. On Fourth street, and in the neighborhood of the large retail houses, the effect produced by the closing was very marked. The "will close" cards were conspicuous by their number and prominent positions in the windows. At a good many places the employees were dismissed for the day at 3 p. m., and a few stores remained closed all day.

Over the Rhine, along Vine street, the places closed were few and far between. When the canvassers went through this section they frequently met men who had heard nothing about the Mills meetings, and an enlightenment on the subject was not by any means followed by a conviction of the propriety of closing the saloons and stores.

The response from the Hebrews as a class was regarded by Mr. Mills and his workers with great satisfaction, and they lose no opportunity to thank them and all classes who observed the day. In its least significant aspect it was a noteworthy tribute of respect to Mr. Mills and the members and the principles of the Christian church.

BOY ROBBERS

Shoot, Perhaps Fatally, a Merchant, but Not Fall to Get Any Booty.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 3.—W. H. Hackett was shot and probably fatally wounded by robbers last night. Hackett is a grocer at 3003 East Ninth street, and when about to close up was counting his money, when three boys entered the store and Hackett, thinking they were customers, offered to wait upon them. They drew revolvers and fired a dozen shots at him, one taking effect in the bridge of the nose, one in the right arm and two in the small of the back. The assailants escaped without securing anything, although robbery was evidently their object.

COME OFF, DAVID!

Senator Hill Attempts to Account for the Republican Landslide in New York.

NEW YORK, March 3.—A Washington correspondent who yesterday talked with Senator Hill telegraphs his paper thus:

"I asked him what in his opinion would account for the defeat of the Democrats all along the line in a State which had recently elected a Democratic governor by an enormous majority. I instanced Elmira, the ex-governor's home, which has just elected David C. Robinson mayor on the Republican independent ticket."

"Why," said the Senator, "that was a purely local fight, a family row, so to speak. Both Mr. Robinson and his opponent, Mr. Collins, are warm personal and political friends of mine. There is no political significance in the defeat of the Democrats—that is, it has only a local political significance."

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

Allegheny's Assistant Postmaster Gets Himself in Trouble.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 3.—Theodore Myler, assistant postmaster of Allegheny, was arrested this afternoon by U. S. Marshal Harrah, on a charge of embezzlement and malfeasance in office. It is alleged that he converted to his own use money designed for special delivery stationery, embezzled money intended for uniforms of carriers, and appropriated to himself portions of salaries due to clerks and carriers by issuing fraudulent vouchers for the same. He gave bail for a hearing to-morrow.

Mr. Myler is a son of ex-Postmaster John A. Myler and has been connected with the Allegheny postoffice for twelve years.

DISAPPOINTED LYNCHERS.

They Are Admitted to the Jail, but the Prisoner Could Not Be Found.

SHERMAN, TEXAS, March 3.—About 500 citizens from town and country, with guns and pistols, went to the jail last night for the purpose of lynching Sam Massey, the negro who so brutally clubbed and outraged the family of William Smith Monday night. When a demand was made for the keys they were handed over. Every cell was searched, but the prisoner had been spirited away by the officers. The countrymen are yet in town and the search will be continued. Ammunition and fire arms have been bought and borrowed freely.

There is little doubt that Massey is the person who committed the brutal tragedy at the Smith place. Smith recovered consciousness sufficiently to say that Massey was guilty. It is believed that none of the victims will recover.

The Widows and Orphans Need Aid.

OSWEGO, March 3.—The recent gales that have prevailed along the coast of Portugal have been productive of great loss of life, more particularly among the fishermen. Among those who lost their lives in the storm of a few days ago were eighty-three married men, in addition to a large number who were unmarried. The eighty-three widows have now thrown upon them the care and support of 233 children. They are miserably poor and unless something is done to aid them they will suffer severely.

Wonderful Gold Disc Series.

DENVER, COLO., March 3.—Reports from Breckenridge say that great gold strikes have been made near there and that prospectors are coming in from all directions.

Henry Hooker, just in from Breckenridge, says that he has seen tellurium ore out of the new mines which he was told ran over $50,000 to the ton. The discoveries have been made along a belt of over five miles in length.

A Terrible Disaster.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 3.—Mrs. Callahan yesterday left her five-year-old girl in charge of her sick baby while she went after some medicine. In some unknown manner the house caught fire and was burned. The baby was burned to a crisp and the other child will die from her burns.

The Democratic Wigwag.

CHICAGO, March 3.—The plans for the building to accommodate the national Democratic convention, have been forwarded to Treasurer Canada, of the national committee, and Sergeant-at-Arms Bright, and if approved by them work will at once be commenced on the structure.

Sunday Papers' Appeal Dismissed.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 3.—The appeals of the Sunday newspapers against the suits entered by the law and order league for selling papers on Sunday were dismissed by Judge Porter, of the county courts this morning and the decisions of Alderman Robe sustained.

Big Bank Robbery.

COLDWATER, MICH., March 3.—Last night the Coldwater National Bank was robbed. The safe was blown open and $50,000 in cash and $40,000 in bonds taken. Ten thousand dollars reward is offered for the arrest of the robbers.

The Workers' Revolt, Its Necessity.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., March 3.—A general reduction of about 10 per cent in the wages of furnace employees is being put into effect in this district. No trouble is apprehended, as the necessity is generally recognized among the men. The furnaces are all in blast and are preparing to face the low prices.

All Are Out Now.

CHICAGO, March 3.—The remainder of the employees of Selz, Schwab & Co., manufacturers of shoes, consisting of about three hundred women, joined the strikers this morning and the entire force, numbering eight hundred is now out.

TTLSAW

MRS. WHITE'S SAD FLIGHT.

Driven Insane by Professional Hypnotists She Has Fled With Her Children and Cannot Be Found.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Somewhere in this city Mrs. Hattie White, a pretty young woman, whose mind is deranged, is hiding to escape imaginary visits. She has her two little daughters with her, and there is reason to believe that in her anxiety to escape her husband's supposed fury and to prevent him from finding the little ones, she is slowly starving them to death.

Mrs. White is twenty-nine years old and has been married twelve years. The eldest daughter, Stella, is eleven years old, and the younger, Edie, is nine. According to Mrs. Kavanagh, and some other neighbors, Mrs. White is a victim of professional hypnotists. She is a subject on whom they often operated. There is very little doubt that she is insane. Whether the tricks of these men had anything to do with making her so is not proved.

At midnight last night Mr. White had received no information of the whereabouts of his wife and children. He said her mind had been affected for nearly three years. She believed that he intended to kill her and the children. Mr. White says that if she finds her hiding place is likely to be discovered she will kill herself and the children, because she is honest in her insane belief that he intends to kill her.

The Green-Eyed Monster.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 3.—Mary Galvin, wife of an iron worker at Duquesne, followed her husband into the house of a Hungarian named Bohar last night and in a fit of jealousy threw concentrated lye at him, dangerously burning his face and breast. Some of the lye splashed over two children of Mrs. Bohar, and they were also badly burned. Mrs. Galvin was arrested and locked up in default of $1,000 bail. Galvin claims that there was no foundation for his wife's suspicions.

A Husband's Discovery.

CAMDEN, N. J., March 3.—Early this morning Thomas S. Mason, a workman in the Pennsylvania car shops at Pottsville, surprised his wife Lizzie in a disreputable house and maddened with rage and jealousy, shot her three times and then cut her throat with a razor, inflicting injuries from which the woman may die. After committing the assault on his wife Mason gave himself up to the authorities.

Last Excursion to Washington via Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

On Thursday, March 10th, the B. & O. R. R. will run the last of the series of excursions to Washington which have become so popular during the winter. This excursion will in no wise differ from those which have preceded, and which have given entire satisfaction to the hundreds who have enjoyed them. There will be the same low rate and the same unexcelled train service of passenger coaches and Pullman Parlor or Sleeping Cars heretofore provided.

Washington is more attractive in March, if possible, than during any other month of the year. It is then that the first signs of spring appear in the public squares and parks. Congress is in session. The public buildings, the art galleries and the museums are open to visitors free of charge.

Tickets from Pittsburgh, Wheeling and intermediate points to Martinsburg are valid to Baltimore, and as they are good for ten days ample time is afforded for side trips to Mt. Vernon, Old Point Comfort and other adjacent points. Tickets valid on all trains, whether limited, express or local, going and returning.

Trains leave Wheeling at 6:10 a. m. and 6:10 p. m., and for these two trains only will tickets be sold. Pullman sleeping cars on evening train. Round trip rate $10.00. Correspondingly low rates from other stations.

False Economy.

Never economize at the expense of your stomach. Strawberry Hams cost very little more than other hams and are better in every way.

William A. Lehr of Kendallville, Ind., says Hood's Sarsaparilla cured his blood.

King of Medicines

And His Cure Was

Almost a Miracle

"Gentlemen: When I was 14 years of age I was confined to my bed for several months by an attack of rheumatism, and when I had partially recovered I did not have the use of my legs, so that I had to go on crutches. About a year later, Scrofula, in the form of

appeared on various parts of my body, and for eleven years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed six years. In that time ten or eleven of these sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. Several times pieces of bone worked out of the sores. Physicians did not help me and

I Became Discouraged

"I went to Chicago to visit a sister, as it was thought a change of air and scene might do me good. But I was confined to my bed most of the time. I was so impressed with the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in cases similar to mine that I decided to try it. So a bottle was bought, and to my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and began to feel better. This strengthened my faith in the medicine, and in a short time I was

Up and Out of Doors

To make a long story short, I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a year, when I had become so fully released from the chains of disease that I took a position with the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since that time have not lost a single day on account of sickness. I always feel well, am in good spirits, and have a good appetite. I endorse for it has been a great blessing to me, and to my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, No. 9 North Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.
